

Herald Cameramen Tell Their Story

OVER NEW ENGLAND—This unusual photo shows the U. S. dirigible Los Angeles over the Interstate Memorial bridge between Portsmouth, N. H., and Kittery, Me., on a recent flight over New England.

SURE, THEY SAW PRESIDENT—Gertrude Ann, 11, and Billy Windsor, 8, are proud possessors of President Hoover's autographed picture. The children came all the way from Tyler, Tex., to Washington to see the president. Their sponsors, the Texas senators, were not in town. It looked as if the trip had been in vain. Then Gertrude wrote a note to the president. He held up affairs of state to give them an interview.

PERFECT BACK—Miss Alta Faulkner, 19, is winner of perfect back contest held in Los Angeles.

PRIOR TO HER FIRST APPEARANCE—Ethel Barrymore Colt, left, daughter of Ethel Barrymore, stage star, with a friend, Miss Peggy Walsh, are seen at Miss Walsh's home, Chevy Chase, Md., where Miss Colt has been vacationing prior to her first appearance in a play. Miss Colt will act with her mother.

SOCIETY GIRL GOES ON STAGE—Miss Marialyce Rice, 18, society bud of Dallas, Tex., comes to New York for stage debut.

RETURNS TO CHINA—Alfred Moy, 23-year-old Chinese flying student at Roosevelt Field, L. I., returns to China soon to aid aviation development there.

NEW PAVEMENT ON PRESIDENTIAL ROADWAY—Workmen rush job of repaving avenue between the White House and the state department.

STRIKERS ACCEPT THEIR PROVISO—With the proviso that alleged radical organizers be ousted, textile strikers at Bessemer City, N. C., were offered businessmen's aid by F. F. Sisk, left, member of city board, and Judge J. R. Mason, city recorder. The organizers were driven from town.

ONLY ONE BIRTHDAY IN FAMILY—Mrs. Helen Hiykel, 38, of Omaha, Neb., and her three children all have their birthdays on one day, Aug. 21. Left to right, John, 17; Mrs. Hiykel; Alice, 19, and Emil, 21. Joseph, the eldest, will be 23 on Sept. 13, the birthday of his father, who died in 1919.

IN AIMEE-MOTHER CONTROVERSY—Miss Mae Waldron, secretary and companion of Aimee Semple McPherson, Los Angeles evangelist who continues on front pages, has been the object of Mrs. Minnie (Ma) Kennedy's demands for removal.

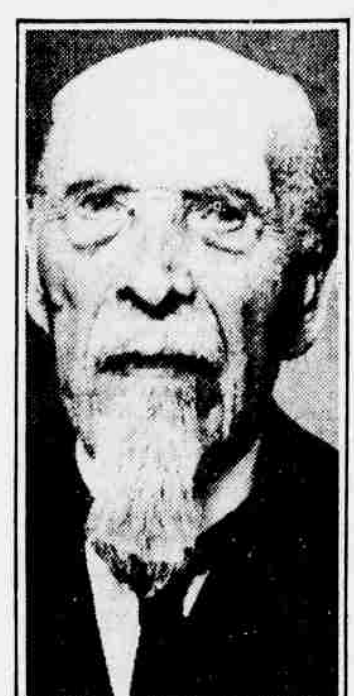

CUPID SCORES HOME RUN—Al Simmons, slugging outfielder of the world's champion Philadelphia Athletics, is photographed in Philadelphia with his fiancée, Miss Dorothy Kuhn, dramatic instructress.

SORE MUSCLES—Candidates for the U. S. naval academy football team go through tackling practice at Annapolis, Md.

ADVENTURE!—H. B. Crislet, Seattle photographer, prepares to enter Olympic peninsula wilderness without supplies and equipped only with knife and axe, to obtain pictures of wild life in its native environments and endeavor to wrest his living from the wilds.

FORMER AIDE TO EMPEROR PEDDLES COAL—Vencelas Saramak, who came to Mexico in 1864 with the Archduke Maximilian and became aide to that ill-fated ruler when Maximilian was named emperor, now peddles coal in Prague, Czechoslovakia. Saramak returned to Austria when Maximilian was executed and served in the Austrian army, but had conflicts with superiors and lost his rank.